

Beckett Brunch 2017: 'Beckett and the Material'.

The Annual Beckett Brunch invites academics and members of the public to meet and engage over the work of Samuel Beckett. This year's theme is 'Beckett and the Material.' There'll be talks on Beckett and film, electricity, rugby, and the theatre, a round-table discussion and more. Come, exchange, and enjoy Beckett's work in the warm and welcoming atmosphere of the Centre Culturel Irlandais, because there is nothing better than Beckett (except Beckett, cakes, and croissants). Get a taste for Beckett!
